

ALC Theological Studies Graduate Attributes

---

Graduate attributes are the learning outcomes that ALC seeks to realise in all graduates.

The generic ALC graduate attributes—intellectual, professional and values—are customised to the context of each ALC school and field of study.

---

Theological studies graduate attributes

- critical understanding of Lutheran theology in the areas of Bible, doctrine, church history and practical theology
- ability to integrate the areas of theology studied and apply the Christian faith to the issues and challenges of church and society
- knowledge and skills to meet the requirements of church workers in the Lutheran Church of Australia or in other areas of church work
- commitment to ongoing learning about the Christian faith and personal spiritual development