Notes

- This calendar is correct as per the published date but may be subject to change without notice.
- ALC reserves the right to cancel workshops due to insufficient enrolments or conditions beyond its control. Notification of any cancellations or changes of date and/or venue will be made as early as practicable.
- If a cohort of at least 6 students is available at any location, a workshop may be offered on request.

Venues and duration

Workshops held in semester breaks during January and July normally run for 4 days, Monday to Thursday, or Tuesday to Friday.

Workshops held during the semester are normally 2 x 2-day workshops held on Fridays and Saturdays.

SA workshops are normally held at Australian Lutheran College, North Adelaide, SA.

Qld workshops are normally held at Lutheran Education Queensland, Milton, Qld.

SE Region workshops are normally held at the District Church Office, Box Hill or at St Paul's, Box Hill, Vic.

Purpose

The aim of workshops is to introduce students to the whole unit and to provide an overview of the material presented in the unit. A workshop also provides an opportunity for sharing between participants, and with the lecturer, and also gives an orientation to the assignments related to the unit.

Notes for School of Educational Theology students:

Students who have completed the ACU Postgraduate Certificate in Educational Leadership as part of the LEA Leadership Development Program [LDP] and who wish to complete the ALC Master of Education [MEd] must include the core units EDU3017 Contemporary Issues in Learning and Teaching and EDU3018 Ethics and Values for Educators in their 4 additional units unless they have completed either of these as part of their ACU award.
